Grace Gee creates art that challenges perceptions, nourishes the spirit, and promotes healing. With an academic background in Psychology and Conscious Evolution, her approach to art is both intellectually stimulating and spiritually transformative. Her body of work extends over multiple media such as sculpture, fiber, artist books, and installations. Since 2003, she has organized numerous social healing art events for audiences of all ages.

Having lived and worked in Canada, the US, Hong Kong, and travelled extensively through Europe and Asia, Grace's bi-cultural experiences greatly influence her work. Her art extends beyond individual expression, reflecting shared human experiences that create connections, foster healing, and promote truth.

HOW IT WORKS

A person in a dark suit stands on a small, light-colored patch of ground in the lower-left corner. The background is a vibrant, abstract scene filled with large, translucent bubbles in shades of teal, purple, and orange, set against a dark blue background. The overall mood is contemplative and hopeful.

Beneath the surface of the marginalized are constant emotions bubbling up when coming face to face with discrimination. These feelings, often submerged beneath the surface, carry stories of pain, resilience, and hope. Bubbling Up seeks to capture these untold narratives, bringing them to the forefront. This project isn't just about revealing truths; it's about acknowledging them, confronting them, and fostering a community of understanding and solidarity. It's a journey from the shadows of silent hurt to the light of shared healing.

"My best friend made jokes about black people eating watermelon and fried chicken"

"It was just a joke! Don't be so sensitive!"

"You don't sound black"

"You must be great at basketball!"

"I'm not racist, my best friend is black"

"You don't sound black"

"Where are you REALLY from?"

"WOW!
You're not like other black people!"

"You don't act Black or talk black" But I am and I have to deal with the hurt that comes with it.

I can't imagine the pain of not feeling safe in your own home,
of feeling targeted in this way.

I had a friend who grew up on a sheep farm whose family also had a rifle at the front door-to protect the sheep. I can't imagine the terror of needing to protect the humans this way. I am so sorry.
